

Do You Want To Write?

Once upon a time,

Saturday, December 4
12:30 - 4:30 p.m.

Are writers born or made? Writing is a craft, and even the most creative persons must master certain fundamentals in order to write well.

This workshop will introduce basic tools such as: dialogue, scene and setting, conflict and narrative arc, description, point of view, and much more. The program will be entertaining, engaging, and enlightening.

Preregistration is not required, program held in Bremer Room.

Presented by Robert "Obie" Holmen, whose historical novel "A Wretched Man, a novel of Paul the Apostle" was released to critical acclaim in March, 2010. It is a powerful recreation of the world of Paul, James, and Peter.
